The Lewiston Journal says: Potatoes are less excited in this market, than in very many other places, but have felt the 50c per bushel. Early Rose are worth 40c to buy. One of our grocers bought a hundred bushels at 70c this week, and got good trade. Potatoes are undoubtedly 25c higher in this market. Oranges have taken a decided jump, and cost $4.75 a box. There are no Valencia's in town. A few weeks ago, they were selling at $3.25. New Bermuda onions have landed in the other direction. Last week, they cost 44 cents; now, they are offered for 52.75.

35c per pound, whole. Fresh shad, from Southern waters, retail at 30c apiece. New alewives are in the market, and retail at 30c per dozen. Fresh mackerel are plentiful at 15c per pound. Eggs are cheaper. The buying price is 15c, and the selling to 18c. Green stuff is becoming more plenty and cheaper.

Portland,—a debt of $1,700. The mortgage assumed $600 of the debt. In the afternoon the whole $1,700 was raised something more, and at the evening session enough additional was secured to take the $600 from the ladies. It may be interesting in this connection to state that since the erection of the church in 1866, interest on money has been paid to the amount of $11,000, enough to build a fine church on Glen Beach, besides the raising of the

Mr. Michael E. Hayes, for seven years past in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company, died at the residence of his father on Madison street, Portland, Saturday night, after an illness of thirty weeks. His correct life and amiable disposition had won him the respect and esteem of his employers and associates, and his untimely death will bring sorrow

Good land and good farms at low prices may be found in Phillips and other sections of North Franklin. If the privations and close applications of our Western settlers were indulged in here and there, much of the Western fever would abate and legitimate industry be sufficiently recompensed in our own State and country. Farming has not for many years offered better returns than the present time and when more tolerable than the earnestly sought West, we shall hope to see our men of enterprise and capital engage in some lucrative industry in our own State, that we not only reward them, but make business for others and induce contentment instead of utter restlessness. —A. M. Reed, who saw mill was burned some weeks ago, is making foundations for another on the same spot, but will use a circular saw

May.—A number of buildings were erected in Phillips this season, the contracts for several of which are already made.—A large amount of cedar boards has been delivered on the railroad line for snow and cattle fences, which will be put up as soon as the frost is sufficiently out of the ground.

At the Maine Central car shop, in Augusta, there are being refitted and repaired four passengers cars, which will be ready for the road. There are also being built two express and baggage cars.

The Journal says that A. G. Braden, of Portland, in company with Fred L. Smith, of Gardiner, devoted last week to a reconnaissance of the country from Gardiner to Farmington through which the new gauge is to be located. He started the work of a survey Monday. The new gauge is now regarded as a certainty.

The Journal says that Joseph Carter, Augusta, has been sued by John P. Nash, who lays damages at $1,000, for forcibly ejecting him from the State House during the unpleasantness of 1880. Carter was an officer, and had been instructed by Chamberlain and Mayor Nash, to allow no one in the building without a pass.

The Argus says one of the interesting cases to be entered at the April term of the Supreme Judicial Court, which commences at Calais next Tuesday, is the case of Rev. John Morse, of Calais, against Bangor Commercial. It is a suit for damages fixed at $10,000.

The Republican says that Mr. Frank W. Wells, of East Machias, has built up an extensive business in potatoes.

The Republican says that Samuel C. Machias, was firing at a mark, when breech-pin gave way and the charge, and tore away the stock and barrel, and buried his face in a very bad manner. One of his eyes was badly cut by some of the rusty barrel and considerable pain.
